In Preparation for Worship

“Nothing packs up and leaves town quicker than the Christmas spirit. On this Second Sunday after Christmas we begin to ask ourselves, Why? Why the tinsel and bells, why the presents and parties? There must be more. Yes, there is much more... God has not left us alone to our own devices, nor are we left without meaning and direction for our lives... We are part of God's great enterprise of redemption, reconciliation, and healing of God's broken world.” William L. Self

Prelude

Prelude on the Introit for the Epiphany / Maurice Duruflé

* Call to Worship

Jeremiah 31

Leader: Hear the word of the Lord, all nations, and declare it in the coastlands far away.

People: They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion; they shall be radiant over the goodness of the Lord.

Leader: I will turn their mourning into joy; I will comfort them, and give them gladness for sorrow.

People: For thus says the Lord: proclaim, give praise, and say, “Save, O Lord, Your people, the remnant of Israel.”

All: Let us worship God!

* Processional Hymn #59

While Shepherds Watched

Celebration of Community

Jason Whitener

* Invitation to Confession

* Call to Prayer

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us pray.

* Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, You chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless, yet we do not love our brothers and sisters as He taught. You destined us for adoption as Your children through Jesus Christ, yet we take our status for granted and fail to obey Christ when He calls us to follow. With all wisdom and insight You have made known to us the mystery of Your will, yet we stubbornly refuse to study Your Word. Forgive our sin, O God, and help us set our hope on Christ that we may live for the praise of His glory. Amen.

* Assurance of Forgiveness

* Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

Anthem

A New Year Carol / Benjamin Britten

Chancel Choir

Here we bring new water from the well so clear, for to worship God with, this happy New Year. Sing levy-dew, sing levy-dew, the water and the wine, the seven bright gold wires and the bugles that do shine. Sing reign of Fair Maid, with gold upon her toe; open you the West Door and turn the Old Year go. Sing reign of Fair Maid, with gold upon her chin; open you the East Door and let the New Year in.

Walter de la Mare

New Testament Reading

Ephesians 1:4-14

Leader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Sermon

God Chooses You

Phil Brown

WE RESPOND TO GOD'S WORD

* Statement of Faith

Confession of 1967 / 9.15

Shannon Dill

God's sovereign love is a mystery beyond the reach of man's mind. Human thought ascribes to God superlatives of power, wisdom, and goodness. But God reveals His love in Jesus Christ by showing power in the form of a servant, wisdom in the folly of the cross, and goodness in receiving sinful men. The power of God's love in Christ to transform the world discloses that the Redeemer is the Lord and Creator who made all things to serve the purpose of His love.

Offertory

Brightest & Best of the Sons of the Morning, arr. Paul Manz

* Doxology

Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below; Praise Him above ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Lord's Supper

When coming forward for Communion, please kneel at the closest available space to the center aisle. If you would like to be served where you are sitting, please raise your hand as the communion servers come down the center aisle and you will be served by intinction (dipping the bread in the cup). Everyone is invited to participate in the sacrament. Children who have discussed the sacrament with their parents and/or a pastor are welcome. A server with gluten-free bread will be standing toward the center aisle on the pulpit side of the communion rail. If you prefer gluten-free bread, please indicate your preference to this server. Parents, please note the center rings of the communion are filled with wine. Only the outer ring is filled with grape juice.

Communion Music

Morning Prayer & The Lord's Prayer

Our Father Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

WE GO IN GOD'S NAME

* Sending Hymn #339

Be Thou My Vision

* Benediction

* Postlude

Postlude on "Hyfrydol" / Ralph Vaughan Williams

WORSHIP NOTE: The New Year Carol was included by Walter de la Mare in his anthology of poems for children, Tom Tiddler's Ground (1931). In 1936, Benjamin Britten composed a tune for it. The "levy dew" in the chorus may be a corruption of either Old English levedy ("lady") or French Levez à Dieu ("Raise to God"), used for the elevation of the host at communion. The latter also explains the water and the wine in the following words. The "seven bright gold wires" might be the strings of a golden harp.

Returning to St. Luke's Presbyterian Church, Russian School #1 presents:

Nadir Khashimov

Today at 4:00 p.m.

Nadir Khashimov is a virtuoso violinist and the owner of a violin made by the famous French luthier, J.B. Vuillaume. He is the winner of many prestigious international violin competitions, and has performed with the world's leading orchestras. Nadir was born in 1990 in Uzbekistan and is a graduate from Uspensky School of Music, class of Dr. V. Khashimov. His amazing talent, virtuoso performance, deep understanding of music, and personal charm make him unforgettable!

Khashimov will perform with another winner of the Liszt Competition, pianist Alexander Ullman. Both musicians combine a busy tour schedule with studying at the Curtis Institute of Music.

A donation will be taken at the entrance.

SERVE

Buy Some, Share One: St. Luke's ongoing food drive supports local organizations. You can help fill the pantry by buying an extra non-perishable item every time you go to the grocery store, and placing your donation in the carts in the main lobby. We are now collecting for the Community Assistance Center. The most needed items are canned meats such as chicken and tuna, peanut butter, jelly, cereal, rice, canned vegetables, cereal and toilet paper.

Volunteers Needed to Provide Dinner at IOH:

Interfaith Outreach Home (IOH) provides transitional housing for homeless families. St. Luke's provides and delivers a meal on the third Thursday of each month. Reimbursement for IOH meals is budgeted. This typically involves approximately 10 adults and 15 children. If you, your family, or group are willing to provide and serve a meal for IOH, please put your name on the sign-up sheet on the lobby bulletin board or contact Al Bridges at 770-394-6581. We still need someone to sign up for the dinner on May 15, 2014. If you would like to help with a dinner for another night, please contact the person already signed up.

Looking to serve your church? There is a need for those willing to serve in a friendly and welcoming way as ushers. Duties include greeting everyone, passing out bulletins, taking up the offering, directing congregants during communion, and tidying up after worship. Questions? Contact John Tienken, 770-394-1104, tienkenj@gmail.com.

Share a Dinner at Journey Night Shelter:

St. Luke's provides dinner on the fourth Sunday of the month for 26 homeless men at Journey (formerly Druid Hills). Volunteers are needed for each month, from now through August 2014. The following dates in 2014 are still available: April 27, May 25, June 27, July 27. If you, your family, or group are willing to provide a meal one month, please sign up on the sheet on the lobby bulletin board or you may call Al Bridges at 770-394-6581.

Looking for a great way to meet other St. Luke's members while serving our congregation?

St. Luke's meal ministry provides meals for families or individuals who are recovering from a recent surgery or illness, suffering from the loss of a loved one, or celebrating the birth or adoption of a new baby. If you are interested in delivering a meal to a congregation member or would like more information, please contact Krissy Williams at bkcook71@yahoo.com.

Helping Hands: This ministry matches short term or emergent needs in the congregation with available resources. Could you use your time and talent to assist someone in the congregation? Examples are setting up or assisting with a computer, driving a member to an appointment, helping change light bulbs. If this interests you, contact Billy Martin, billybeer214@yahoo.com or 770-441-0373. If you need the Helping Hands team, contact your Deacon.

Today after the 11:00 service:

We sure could use some helping hands to "undecorate" the church today. If you have a few minutes to spare, please meet Jan Slater at the front of the sanctuary after the service. Thank you!

SERVE

Get together with some friends for a continental breakfast here at St. Luke's every Sunday morning and welcome folks as they arrive. If you and your friends could furnish one of these breakfasts, we will be glad to reimburse you. Please sign up on <http://bit.ly/slpcbrkfst> or contact Jay Burton, jburton@mflaw.com. We also need volunteers to greet folks as they come in through the lobby and narthex. All you need is a smile and to be able to open a door! Families are encouraged to help. Sign up to be a greeter at <http://bit.ly/slpcgreet2> or contact Jay Burton, jburton@mflaw.com.

Prayer Ministry: Our St. Luke's Prayer Ministry Team is involved in intercessory prayer. Intercessory prayer is the act of praying on behalf of others. The Bible is clear that Christians are called to be intercessors. If you would like to become a part of the Prayer Ministry Team, contact Paula Barbin, barbin@fulton.k12.ga.us or 678-297-9877.

R.O.C.K. (Reaching Out Through Crocheting & Knitting): Wednesdays, 10 a.m. - noon. Men and women, young and not quite so young, of any skill level, are welcome! We make prayer shawls, layette sets for preemies, squares for blankets, and other items for outreach projects.

SLPC Friends:

We hope you had a wonderful Christmas and now a happy new year. Many of you are including "staying really active at St. Luke's" in your new year's resolutions; we are here to help!

Our next opportunity to host homeless children and their parents is the week of February 2-9. The first Sunday is Scottish Heritage Sunday—the day after the Tartan Trot.

The signup link is just like the last one except that the URL ends with 5 (for our fifth hosting week):

www.SignUpGenius.com/go/805084CAFAF28A75-slpc5

Or, go to www.signupgenius.com, search for slpcfamilypromise@yahoo.com, and sign up.

We are continuing with the November changes to the schedule based on your feedback. Guest families now usually have cars... often very basic, but a car nonetheless. This has reduced the need for driving the van and there is less 'afternoon hosting' on weekdays. Because guests seem to arrive later for dinner, we have pushed the dinner slot to 6:30-8:30 (plan to eat closer to 7:00). We want to keep bedtime the same, so we are going to remove the evening host slot after dinner.

Thank you for all you do for these families. See you in 2014!
