In Preparation for Worship

On August 17, 1560, reformer John Knox and five of his colleagues presented the first Reformed Confession of Faith written in the English language to the Parliament of Scotland. “The Scots Confession,” as it is now known, united all of Scotland in its politics and in the church. From that day on, the nation was united under a Protestant Flag, emblazoned with the Cross of St. Andrew. It was the birth of the Church of Scotland, and Presbyterianism became a new denomination of Christians. Today, St. Luke’s Presbyterian Church celebrates its heritage in descent from the Church of Scotland. It is from an unadorned Calvinist faith of Word and Sacrament, preached passionately in Scotland by the great reformer John Knox during the sixteenth century that St. Luke’s continues to draw its life and mission. With voices singing, drums beating and bagpipes playing, let us celebrate our Scottish heritage in this service for the worship of God.

Gathering Prayer of Adoration

Shannon Dill

Most gracious God, our Heavenly Father, in Whom alone dwelleth all fullness of light and wisdom: illuminate our minds, we beseech Thee, by Thine Holy Spirit, in the true understanding of Thy word. Give us grace that we may receive it with reverence and humility unfeigned. May it lead us to put our whole trust in Thee alone. Amen.

* Prayer of Confession

For by nature we are so dead, blind, and perverse, that neither can we feel when we are tempted, see the light when it shines, nor assent to the will of God when it is revealed, unless the Spirit of the Lord Jesus removes the darkness from our minds. For by ourselves we are not capable of thinking one good thought, but He Who has begun the work in us alone continues us in it, to the praise and glory of His undeserved grace. Amen.
(from the Scots Confession)

* Assurance of Forgiveness

Our faith and its assurance are the inspiration of the Holy Ghost. We confess that the Holy Ghost does sanctify and regenerate us, without respect to any merit proceeding from us. He Who has begun the work in us alone continues us in it, to the praise and Glory of His undeserved Grace.
(from the Scots Confession)

* Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want; He makes me down to lie in pastures green; He leadeth me the quiet waters by. My soul He doth restore again, and me to walk doth make within the paths of righteousness, e'en for His own name's sake. Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale, yet will I fear no ill; for Thou art with me, and Thy rod and staff me comfort still. My table Thou hast furnished in presence of my foes; my head Thou dost with oil anoint, and my cup overflows. Goodness and mercy all my life shall surely follow me, and in God's house forevermore my dwelling-place shall be.

WE RESPOND TO GOD'S WORD

* Affirmation of Faith

We confess and acknowledge one God alone, to Whom we must cleave, Whom alone we must serve, Whom only we must worship, and in Whom alone we put our trust. Who is eternal, infinite, immeasurable, incomprehensible, omnipotent, invisible; one in substance and yet distinct in three persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. We most surely believe that God preserved, instructed, multiplied, honored, adorned, and called from death to life His Kirk in all ages since Adam until the coming of Christ Jesus in the flesh. Amen. (From the Scots Confession)

Offering & Offertory

Yvonne Miller, recorder

* Doxology

Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below; Praise Him above ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer of Remembrance & The Lord's Prayer

Alan Miller

Our Father Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

About “Scottish Heritage Sunday”

Today is a time to recognize those leaders and martyrs of the church, and members of the armed forces, who have enabled us to worship in modern times in freedom, as well as to enjoy each other and our guests in fellowship. A warm welcome is extended to our visitors and thanks to those from St. Luke’s and those outside our congregation who have come to assist and make this a special service of worship. Those in key roles today are: Alan Miller, Beadle, born in Paisley, Scotland, St. Luke’s member and member of the St. Andrew’s Society; Yvonne Miller, born in Oban, Scotland, member of St. Luke’s and the St. Andrew’s Society, gifted musically, playing the recorder; Donald Malcolm, St. Luke’s member, member of the St. Andrew’s Society and former National President of the Clan MacCallum-Malcolm Society of North America; Rosina Grey, born in Springburn, Scotland, is past President of the St. Andrew’s Society of Atlanta and a Board Member of the Stone Mountain Highland Games; Greg Slaton, a member of St. Luke’s, is President of the St. Andrew’s Society of Atlanta, a member of Clan Hunter, and a Board member of the Burns Club of Atlanta.

The History

The ceremony of Kirkin’ o’ the Tartan is of American origin, though based on Scottish history and legend. Scotland came under British rule following the Battle of Culloden in 1746. The Scots were not allowed to wear their tartans, which represented Scottish heritage, for 50 years. The stubborn Scots would secretly carry a piece of their tartan to the Kirk where the minister would slip in a blessing (a Kirkin’). The first Kirkin’ in the United States was held in 1943 at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church by the late Dr. Peter Marshall, an eloquent Scot and minister there. He was also Chaplain of the U.S. Senate.

Blessing of the Tartans

The worship service is very traditional and much of the content is based on the Church of Scotland. Central to its theme is the presentation of various tartans – through flags and the wearing of tartans – for a blessing. Clans were simply a gathering of peoples for their protection and for economic, political, and social support. Clansmen demonstrated a true brotherhood of man, the tartan is a symbol of this love and togetherness. The Kirkin’ is intended to encourage all participants to reflect with thanksgiving on their own family and ethnic heritage, and to celebrate God’s grace poured out for all generations.

The Beadle

A kilted Beadle leads the worship procession carrying the Bible to the front of the sanctuary and pulpit. Reminiscent of an old custom of the Church of Scotland, this tradition highlights the Bible as the Word of our Lord and the center of our faith.

The Evolution of the Kilt

No doubt the most identifiable garment worn by the Scots is the kilt, regardless of the fabric. The kilt of modern times is made with eight yards of tartan, pleated together in the back, left unpleated in the front, and designed like a wrap-around apron. Laid out flat it would have pleats in the middle, with two unpleated, flat sections on either side. In examining its history, it also helps to remember that the modern kilt is made to cover only the lower half of the body, from the waist down to the knees. In the late 1500’s, the Feileadh Mhor, or the Great Kilt, as we saw on William Wallace in Braveheart, was made to cover most of the body, from the knees to the neck, and sometimes even the head. It was made using twice the width of cloth as a modern kilt. One laid out the yardage of the very wide cloth on the ground and proceeded to pleat the center of the fabric, leaving the two flat sections on either side. It would look much the same as the modern kilt when spread out, but with the two flat side sections being twice as long. Congregational Meeting, February 9, 2014

The Session of St. Luke's has called a congregational meeting following the 11 a.m. worship service of February 9, 2014. The purpose of the meeting is to approve a new charter for the Endowment Committee, elect new officers to the Class of 2017, report the 2013 financial results and the 2014 budget, and approve the terms of call of ordained staff.

Faye Cashwell, Clerk of Session

Church Communication Survey

In an effort to improve all aspects of our church's communication, St. Luke's is conducting a quick survey to find out how we can better serve you and your family. The survey is completely anonymous, which means the more honest your answers are, the more we will learn from your participation. The survey will only take you about five minutes to complete; please take the survey by typing the following address into your web browser: svy.mk/1f6nmf3

SERVE

Helping Hands: This ministry matches short term or emergent needs in the congregation with available resources. Could you use your time and talent to assist someone in the congregation? Examples are setting up or assisting with a computer, driving a member to an appointment, helping change light bulbs. If this interests you, contact Billy Martin, billybeer214@yahoo.com or 770-441-0373. If you need the Helping Hands team, contact your Deacon.

Buy Some, Share One: Support food pantries at local organizations by buying an extra non-perishable item every time you go to the grocery store, and placing your donation in the carts in the main lobby. This month we are collecting for the IOH (Interfaith Outreach Home). Thank you!

Volunteers Needed to Provide Dinner: Interfaith Outreach Home (IOH) provides transitional housing for homeless families; St. Luke's provides and delivers a meal on the third Thursday of each month. Reimbursement is budgeted. If your family or group can provide and serve a meal, please put your name on the sign-up sheet on the lobby bulletin board or contact Al Bridges at 770-394-6581. Volunteers needed for May 15, 2014.

Serve your church with your smile! There is a need for those willing to serve as ushers or greeters:

Greeters greet members and guests as they come in through the lobby and narthex. (This is a great thing to do as a family!) Sign up to be a greeter at <http://bit.ly/slpcgreet2>

Ushers greet everyone, pass out bulletins, take up the offering, direct congregants during communion, and tidy up after worship.

Questions? Contact John Tienken, 770-394-1104, tienkenj@gmail.com.

Looking for a great way to serve your church family? St. Luke's Meal Ministry provides meals for families or individuals who are recovering from a recent surgery or illness, suffering from the loss of a loved one, or celebrating the birth or adoption of a new baby. If you are interested in delivering a meal to a congregation member or would like more information, please contact Krissy Williams at bkcook71@yahoo.com.

Get together for breakfast here at St. Luke's every Sunday morning and welcome folks as they arrive. If you and your friends could furnish a continental breakfast, we will be glad to reimburse you. Please sign up on <http://bit.ly/slpcbrkfst> or contact Jay Burton, jburton@mflaw.com.

Mission Trip to spectacular Guatemala: Have you ever rescued a family from lung disease and from hunger? Would you enjoy building a brick stove or planting trees in cool mountain air, with volcanoes in the background? For anyone over 18, we are planning a mission team from St. Luke's to work with long-time Mission partner, AIR-Guatemala for this summer (2014). We hope to have a SLPC group MAY 31 - JUNE 7, but individuals are welcome any Saturday - Saturday, from May 25th - July 6th. For more info: Anne Hallum at ahallum@stetson.edu. AIR staff members will meet you at the airport and handle every detail of an unforgettable week!

Share a Dinner: St. Luke's provides dinner on the fourth Sunday of the month for 26 homeless men at Journey Night Shelter (formerly Druid Hills). Please sign up on the lobby bulletin board or call Al Bridges at 770-394-6581. Volunteers are still needed for April 27, May 25, June 27, and July 27.
