A Time for Meditation and Silent Prayer

Hebrews 10:16-25

This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put My laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds, He also adds, I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more. Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that He opened for us through the curtain (that is, through His flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the day approaching.

Call to Worship

Leader: For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son,

People: So that everyone who believes in Him may not perish but have eternal life.

Leader: Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world,

People: But in order that the world might be saved through Him.

All: Let us worship God!
