THAT ALL MAY WORSHIP

A HEARING LOOP is accessible by switching hearing aids to T-coil. Large print hymnals and pew cushions are available; our ushers are happy to assist you.

CHILDREN are a precious part of our church family, and we encourage all families to include them in worship. Worship notebooks are available on the back ledges of the sanctuary for preschool and elementary ages. Each week, we invite all children to walk up for an age-appropriate message during "Tell Us Our Story". After that time, children are welcome to remain in worship, to play and hear a Bible story in child care (PreK and younger), or to learn more about our worship traditions in Faithful Friends (for K, 1st & 2nd grades) in The Harbor (Room 213).

ABOUT LESSONS AND CAROLS: The tradition of the "Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols" was established in England - as the adaptation of an earlier service - on Christmas Eve, 1918, in the chapel of Kings College, Cambridge University. The Kings College service was first broadcast by radio in 1928; and, excepting the year 1930, these broadcasts have continued (for seventy years internationally) to this day. This wonderful tradition, moreover, has been duplicated in cathedrals and churches throughout America. Each year, these services of Lessons and Carols includes selections sung by choirs interspersed with congregational hymns and scriptural readings. We invite you to join us this morning at Saint Luke's as we participate in this grand seasonal tradition.

In Preparation for Worship

There is one God, whose word and wisdom made and ordered all things. God's word is our Lord Jesus Christ who in the last times became human among humankind, that Christ might unite the end with the beginning, that is, humankind with God. Irenaeus of Lyons, 2nd Century

Where Shepherds Lately Knelt Craig Courtney

Where shepherds lately knelt and kept the angel's word, I come in half-belief, a pilgrim strangely stirred; But there is room and welcome there for me. In that unlikely place I find him as they said: Sweet newborn Babe, how frail! And in a manger bed: A still, small voice to cry one day for me. How should I not have known Isaiah would be there, His prophecies fulfilled? With pounding heart I stare: A child, a son, the Prince of Peace for me. Can I, will I forget how Love was born, and burned It's way into my heart—unasked, unforced, unearned, to die, to live, and not alone for me? (Jaroslav Vajda)
