Scottish Heritage Sunday

February 5, 2017, 11:00am

February 5, 2017

Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Liturgical Color: Green

Green is used for Sundays not marked by a particular season or festival and is utilized to indicate Ordinary time.

Today's flowers are given to the glory of God and in loving appreciation of our tireless Tartan Trot team.

SUNDAY SCHEDULE

8:30am Chapel Communion Service

9:30am Sunday School

11:00am Sanctuary Worship Service

Nursery available at all services and Sunday School.

MISSION

Responding to God's call and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we invite all to join us in knowing, serving, and sharing Jesus Christ here and around the world.

VISION

To be a beacon
of faith, hope, and love—
every member an active disciple in Christ's ministry.

WELCOME, GUESTS!

We are delighted you are worshipping with us.

DURING the Welcome, please print the requested information on the Friendship Pad and pass the Friendship Pad down the pew.

AFTER the worship service, please join us outside the Sanctuary where our Pastors or a church officer will be available to answer questions and provide you with a loaf of freshly-baked bread.

FOR MORE information about our programs, ministries or membership, please contact one of our Pastors at 770.393.1424, or visit our website: slpres.org.

THAT ALL MAY WORSHIP

ASSISTIVE A hearing loop is accessible by switching hearing aids to T-coil. Also, large print hymnals and back cushions are available. Please contact an usher for further assistance.

CHILDREN are a precious part of our church family, and we welcome them in worship. Worship notebooks and activity packets are available on the back ledges of the sanctuary for preschool and elementary ages. Each week, children are invited to walk up for an age-appropriate message during "Tell Us Our Story." After that time, they may remain in worship, go to Faithful Friends (K-2nd) or go to child care (PreK and younger).

In Preparation for Worship

“The Kirk (Church) – As we believe in one God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, so we firmly believe that from the beginning there has been, now is, and to the end of the world shall be, one Kirk, that is to say, one company and multitude of men chosen by God, who rightly worship and embrace Him by true faith in Christ Jesus, who is the only Head of the Kirk, even as it is the body and spouse of Christ Jesus.”

Gathering Prayer

Alan Miller

Let us pray.

Most gracious God, our Heavenly Father, in Whom alone dwelleth all fullness of light and wisdom:
illuminate our minds, we beseech Thee,
by Thine Holy Spirit, in the true understanding of Thy word.
Give us grace that we may receive it with reverence and humility unfeigned.
May it lead us to put our whole trust in Thee alone. Amen.

Prayer of Confession*

(Adapted from Scottish Reformer John Knox's Liturgy of 1560)

Almighty God,

we are unworthy to come into Your presence, because of our many sins.

And yet, O Lord, as we acknowledge our sins and offenses, so also do we acknowledge You to be a merciful God,

a loving and favorable Father, to all who turn to You.

And so we humbly ask You, for the sake of Christ Your Son, to show mercy to us, and forgive us all our offenses.

By Your Spirit, O God, take possession of our hearts, so that, not only the actions of our lives, but also the words of our mouths, and the smallest thought of our minds, may be guided and governed by You.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with You and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and forever. Amen.

Leader: Lord, in Your mercy,

People: Hear our prayer. Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness* from The Scots Confession

Our faith and its assurance are the inspiration of the Holy Ghost.

We confess that the Holy Ghost does sanctify and regenerate us, without respect to any merit proceeding from us.

He Who has begun the work in us alone continues us in it, to the praise and Glory of His undeserved Grace.

Song of Praise*

Gloria Patri GREATORUM

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

Passing of the Peace of Christ*

Leader: May the peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

Prayer for Illumination

Jim McIntire

First Lesson

Luke 7:1-10, page 61 of the New Testament

Jim McIntire

Leader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Second Lesson

Luke 7:11-17

Claire Pettys

Leader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Tell Us Our Story

Shannon Dill

Since today is a unique worship service, we encourage children to remain with their families. However, parents are welcome to take their children to Sheppard Hall to our nursery (through PreK), in Room 120.

Sermon

Our Heritage of Reform

David Lower

Affirmation of Faith

From The Scots Confession

Shannon Dill

We confess and acknowledge one God alone,
to Whom we must cleave,
Whom alone we must serve,
Whom only we must worship,
and in Whom alone we put our trust.

Who is eternal, infinite, immeasurable, incomprehensible, omnipotent, invisible;
one in substance and yet distinct in three persons,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

We most surely believe that God preserved, instructed, multiplied, honored, adorned, and called from death to life His Kirk in all ages since Adam until the coming of Christ Jesus in the flesh. Amen

Prayers of the People

Shannon Dill

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever. Amen.

Offering Invitation

Giving is a tangible sign of worship. If you give electronically, there is a blue, laminated, electronic giving card in the pew rack to place in the offering plate as it is passed.

Offertory

Within Your Shelter, Loving God (Psalm 91) Scottish Psalter

Chancel Choir

Within your shelter, loving God, my refuge and my tower,
I safely walk by day and night beneath your guiding power.

Because I trust in you alone, no evil shall come near.
The strong defender of my home, with you I have no fear.

Your holy angels bear me up and keep my feet secure.
Though fierce and angry foes assail, in you my way is sure.

As often as I call to you, you kindly hear my prayer.
In times of trouble and distress I rest in your own care.

All those who know your name on earth shall life abundant know.
On all abiding in your love your saving grace bestow. (John Dunn)

Song of Thanksgiving*

The Doxology OLD 100TH

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise God all creatures here below;
Praise God above ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer of Dedication*

Recessional Hymn #649* Amazing Grace AMAZING GRACE

Benediction*

Postlude* Amazing Grace arr. George Shearing

ABOUT “SCOTTISH HERITAGE SUNDAY”

Today is a time to recognize those leaders and martyrs of the church, and members of the armed forces, who have enabled us to worship in modern times in freedom, as well as to enjoy each other and our guests in fellowship. A warm welcome is extended to our visitors and thanks to those inside and outside our congregation who have come to assist and make this a special service of worship. Those in key roles today are:

Tom McIntire, a director of St. Andrew's Society of Atlanta and a member of Clan MacIntyre; Yvonne Miller, playing recorder, born in Oban, Scotland, member of Saint Luke's and the St. Andrew's Society; Donald Malcolm, member of the St. Andrew's Society and former National President of the Clan MacCallum-Malcolm Society of North America; Claire Pettys, President of the St. Andrew's Society of Atlanta and a member of Clan Graham; and Alan Miller, Beadle, born in Paisley, Scotland, Saint Luke's member and member of the St. Andrew's Society.

The History

The ceremony of Kirkin' o' the Tartan is of American origin, though based on Scottish history and legend. Scotland came under British rule following the Battle of Culloden in 1746. The Scots were not allowed to wear their tartans, which represented Scottish heritage, for 50 years. The stubborn Scots would secretly carry a piece of their tartan to the Kirk (church) where the minister would slip in a blessing (a Kirkin'). The first Kirkin' in the US was in 1943 at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Blessing of the Tartans

The worship service is very traditional and much is based on the Church of Scotland. Central to its theme is the presentation of various tartans for a blessing. The Kirkin' is intended to encourage all participants to reflect with thanksgiving on their own family and ethnic heritage, and to celebrate God's grace poured out for all generations.

The Beadle

A kilted Beadle leads the worship procession carrying the Bible to the front of the sanctuary and pulpit. Reminiscent of an old custom of the Church of Scotland, this tradition highlights the Bible as the Word of our Lord and the center of our faith.

The Evolution of the Kilt

No doubt the most identifiable garment worn by the Scots is the kilt, regardless of the fabric. The kilt of modern times is made with eight yards of tartan, pleated together in the back, left unpleated in the front, and designed like a wrap-around apron. The modern kilt is made to cover only the lower half of the body, from the waist down to the knees. But in the late 1500's, the Feileadh Mhor, or the Great Kilt (as seen on William Wallace in Braveheart), covered the body from the knees to the neck, and sometimes even the head.

FAMILY PROMISE

A big Thank You to the Crier and to Carol Nemi. Carol recently wrote a piece about Your Pie and their gifts of free pizza to Family Promise guests (and others).
She was so impressed with what she learned about FP and felt it deserved its own story!

Link for Crier article: http://www.thecrier.net/news/article_ccb9047e-e1d2-11e6-a5df-83630e4a1454.html#.WluojMeI4Ao.gmail

We're so thankful to our fellow Saint Lukians for your ongoing generosity and support!
We know your dreams are full of Tartan Trot and Scottish Heritage at the moment, but remember Family Promise will offer another host week opportunity beginning Feb. 19. (A full 2 weeks to recover)

We're always grateful for your time, your food, your smiles, and your support of and prayers for our guests.

Here's a link to the sign-up. Hope you'll be able to join us!
