For your convenience, there is a Family Restroom located in the hallway of the administrative offices, on the first floor, near the main lobby.

In Preparation for Worship

You accept us when we are different. O God. You protect us when others may try to bring us down. We praise You and thank You for standing by us when we are alone, even though we may not always acknowledge it. Listen to our worship and prayers. Help us grow closer to You. Amen.

Morning Prayer & The Lord's Prayer

Our Father Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Old Testament Reading

Genesis 29:1-14

Leader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Anthem

I Will Sing / Clair Maxwell

What about our world? Disaster everywhere, people hurting people in ways beyond compare. I don't know what God wants me to do. A new world may begin with me and you. I will sing, I will pray that God will give us hope eternal each and every day. I will work, I will share the love of Jesus everywhere. Help a needy child, spend time with those alone, feed those who are hungry, make friends with those unknown. What is the purpose of my charity? For those you touch, new life eternally! And one by one each life is changed, and people's lives are rearranged, and all the world is one!

New Testament Reading

John 4:5-25

Leader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Sermon

Our sermons today come from a few of St. Luke's Graduating Seniors

WE RESPOND TO GOD'S WORD

* Statement of Faith (compiled from 2013 Confirmation Class)

I believe that God is love. I believe that God loves us no matter what, and that love will never end. He creates, redeems, sustains, rules, and transforms all things and all people. From the beginning God believed in me—answering my prayers, and loving me fully. I know that I can trust God to be with me at all times and even when I think I can't go on He carries me forward. In unconditional love God created the world pure and made everyone equal in His image, male and female, of every race and people, to live as one community. We, the church, can always be improved upon. I believe God loves us all. That God wants us to love all—even our enemies. If God sacrificed His Son for us, I can sacrifice something for Him in appreciation. I believe helping others and serving God is the best way to be close to God. I believe in following Jesus not only to gain a place in heaven, but also to help a world that is scarred by so many wrongs. I will help create a world of peace, step by step, with many others, through the church, and through God. Now as I move on with my life, I remember to use love, not a knife, and tell those who are afraid, "Trust in God by Whom you were made, and listen to Him and help His cause, by obeying His word and laws. And if you don't know how, follow me and I'll show you now, how the Lord, my God, does amazing things!"

Offering & Offertory

You are My All in All / Dennis Jernigan

You are my strength when I am weak; you are the trea-sure that I seek; you are my all in all. When I fall down, you pick me up; when I am dry, you fill my cup; you are my all in all. Je - sus, Lamb of God, wor - thy is your name! Je - sus,
Lamb of God, wor - thy is your name!

* Doxology

Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below; Praise Him above ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

* Prayer of Dedication

WE GO IN GOD'S NAME

* Sending Hymn #399

We Walk by Faith, Not by Sight / Dunlap's Creek

* Benediction

* Postlude

Worship Notes: Today is Youth Sunday, a special day when the youth of our congregation lead us in worship. Throughout the year they encounter God through a variety of worship experiences. Through retreats, mission trips, conferences, choir, and worship here at St. Luke's, these encounters have profound impacts on their faith. May the Spirit continue to move through each of our youth, and us, as we worship together.

SHARE

Lent is a time of reflection, so why not check out a book from the St. Luke's library (upstairs, above the main lobby)? For adults, there many excellent books about the life of Jesus and His final week. We also have many beautifully illustrated children's books about Easter.

Resources for Lent

We have compiled an informative booklet called “Lent 2014, 40 Days of Devotion” for your use. There are printed copies in the main lobby or you can download a pdf from the “worship bulletins” section of the website.

Here are three links for daily devotions during Lent (actually, you can use them every day of the year!). Each of these have scripture passages, devotional reflections, and prayer – it really is a matter of personal preference on which one you use.

Lent is an ideal time to pray and reflect on the gift of life God offers to us through Jesus Christ. Traditionally, it is a time of repentance, fasting, and preparation for the coming of Easter. In Larry Beman’s book, God’s Gift of Life, we are invited to open our hearts and minds through self-examination and reflection so that we might grow in our faith.

In worship and Sunday School, we will explore the blessings of the life given to us through the ministry, suffering, crucifixion, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

If you need the Helping Hands team, contact your Deacon.

Buy Some, Share One: Support food pantries at local organizations by buying an extra non-perishable item every time you go to the grocery store, and placing your donation in the carts in the main lobby. This month we are collecting for the CAC (Community Assistance Center). Thank you!

Volunteers Needed to Provide Dinner: Interfaith Outreach Home (IOH) provides transitional housing for homeless families; St. Luke's provides and delivers a meal once a month. Greeters greet members and guests as they come in through the lobby and narthex. (This is a great thing to do as a family!) Sign up to be a greeter at <http://bit.ly/slpcgreet2>

Ushers greet everyone, pass out bulletins, take up the offering, direct congregants during communion, and tidy up after worship.
