All Saints Sunday

Liturgical Color: White

White is used on days we celebrate the redemptive power of Jesus Christ, such as Christmas, Easter and Communion Sundays.

SUNDAY SCHEDULE

8:30am Chapel Communion Service

9:30am Sunday School

11:00am Sanctuary Worship Service

Nursery available at all services and Sunday School.

MISSION

Responding to God's call and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we invite all to join us in knowing, serving, and sharing Jesus Christ here and around the world.

VISION

To be a beacon of faith, hope, and love—every member an active disciple in Christ's ministry.

WELCOME, GUESTS!

We are delighted you are worshipping with us.

DURING the Welcome, please print the requested information on the Friendship Pad and pass the Friendship Pad down the pew.

AFTER the worship service, please join us outside the Sanctuary where our Pastors will be available to answer questions and provide you with a loaf of freshly-baked bread.

FOR MORE information about our programs, ministries or membership, please contact one of our Pastors at 770.393.1424, or visit our website: slpres.org.

THAT ALL MAY WORSHIP

ASSISTIVE A hearing loop is accessible by switching hearing aids to T-coil. Also, large print hymnals and pew cushions are available. Please contact an usher for further assistance.

CHILDREN are a precious part of our church family, and we welcome them in worship. Worship notebooks and activity packets are available on the back ledges of the sanctuary for preschool and elementary ages. Each week, children are invited to walk up for an age-appropriate message during "Tell Us Our Story." After that time, they may remain in worship, go to Faithful Friends (K-2nd) or go to child care (PreK and younger).

In Preparation for Worship

"For centuries the church has confronted the human community with role models of greatness. We call them saints...ones so possessed by an internal vision of divine goodness that they give us a glimpse of the face of God in the center of the human. They give us a taste of the possibilities of greatness in ourselves." Joan Chittister

Affirmation of Faith* Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate;
was crucified, dead, and buried;
He descended into hell;
the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Response Hymn #491* You Have Put On Christ BAPTIZED IN CHRIST

Baptismal Promise

Following the elder's statement the congregation shall respond:

With joy and thanksgiving,
we welcome Emmett in to Christ's church, for we are all one in Christ.
We promise to love, encourage, and support him,
to share the good news of the gospel with him,
and to help him know and follow Christ.

Anthem

Shall We Gather at the River arr. Albert Travis Chancel Choir

Shall we gather at the river,
Where bright angel feet have trod;
With its crystal tide forever
Flowing by the throne of God
Yes, we'll gather at the river,
The beautiful, the beautiful river;
Gather with the saints at the river
That flows by the throne of God.
On the margin of the river,
Washing up its silver spray,

We will walk and worship ever,
All the happy golden day.
E'er we reach the shining river,
Lay we ev'ry burden down;
Grace our spirits will deliver,
And provide a robe and crown.
Soon we'll reach the shining river,
Soon our pilgrimage will cease;
Soon our happy hearts will quiver
With the melody of peace.

The Lord's Supper

Communion will be served by intinction (dipping the bread into the cup). Everyone is invited to participate in the sacrament. Children who have discussed the sacrament with their parents and/or pastor are welcome. The cup holds grape juice, not wine, during this service. A server with gluten-free wafers will be standing directly in front of the communion table for those who prefer this option. If you would prefer to be served where you are sitting, please raise your hand.

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving for the Saints

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us pray.

People: God of the ages, we give you thanks for saints, those of our day and of days before, who nurtured us in faith, who told us the stories of Jesus, and who cultivated among us the sense of our own vocation to follow God's path.
Help us not only to remember them, but also to follow their example, to nurture their expectant hope, and to live our lives
so that others might see your love reflected in all that we say and do.
Thank you, God, for the gift of your saints.

Leader: God of all time, we praise you for all your servants, who have done justice, loved mercy, and walked humbly with their God.

People: For all those who have faithfully served you, witnessed bravely, and died in the faith, who are still shining lights in the world,
we praise you, O God.

Leader: You are the God of Abraham and Sarah and Jacob and Joseph.

People: You are the God of Moses and Miriam.

Leader: You are the God of Ruth and David.

People: You are the God of the Old Testament priests and prophets, of the New Testament apostles and martyrs.

Leader: You are the God of our mothers and fathers, the God of our children, the God of all people through all the generations.

People: For those we have known and loved in this church family, who by their faithful obedience and steadfast hope have shown the same mind that was in Christ Jesus,
we praise You, O God.
We name those who have joined the company of the saints in the past year.
(silence accompanied by names and bells)

Leader: We acknowledge people beyond this church who have served as saints in our own lives —parents, teachers, mentors, and friends who have challenged us to be all God created us to be.
We name them for you silently in our hearts.

People: We also remember saints alive today who continue to touch our lives and our faith journeys, and we look ahead with hope to the people whose faithful witness to God's love will inspire future generations.

Leader: We are thankful for the gift of the Holy Spirit, that binds us together, those present and those eternal, as the Body of Christ.
We gather with all the saints at Your table, prepared in the same Spirit to proclaim the good news and do the work of God in the world.
We ask this same Spirit inspire our bread and cup this day, so that we might again experience
the wonder of Your generous love in this holy feast.

People: As we are sustained by the feast, keep us grateful for the witness of the saints of all generations, and make us, like them, eager to follow in the way of Christ.
Then at the last,
bring us with them to share in the inheritance of the saints of life.
We pray in the holy name of Jesus. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;

The Saint Luke's Columbarium serves as the eternal resting place for many of the church's saints gone before us. Immediately after worship, everyone is invited to join David outside in the columbarium for a prayer honoring the saints laid to rest here at our church. The columbarium is located directly behind the organ and stained glass window of our sanctuary, accessible by doors to either side of the sanctuary.

Commitment 2017: Celebrating God's Blessings

THE 2017 COMMITMENT SEASON—During this year's Commitment Season, dedicated to Celebrating God's Blessings, we have three specific "asks" for you. Today is dedicated to the second "ask:" Invite a friend. You will learn about special services and events at Saint Luke's that are especially well-suited to bringing a friends and neighbors to church and we will ask each member to invite a friend to join us at one or more of these events.

THE GREAT TREE OF BLESSINGS—In keeping with the Commitment Season's dedication this year to Celebrating God's Blessings, we are in the process of covering The Great Tree of Blessings with leaves that represent the many things at Saint Luke's for which we are grateful. You will find leaves tucked inside your Commitment Packet, which is now available for pick-up in the lobby. Please design your leaf to answer this question: "What are God's blessing that you have received through Saint Luke's Presbyterian Church?" We would like every member of the congregation to complete one or more leaves, in whatever way you are most inspired (write a comment, attach a photograph, draw a picture, or decorate the leaf in some other way). Please place completed leaves in the basket that is located at the foot of the Great Tree of Blessings in the lobby.

HARVEST FESTIVAL AT HIGH NOON—November 6th is Commitment Sunday. On this day, we will gather together, all in one place at one time, in a combined service at 11:00am. Commitment Sunday will be a casual affair (jeans welcomed!) and we will continue the celebration after the service with a church-wide harvest festival lunch including BBQ, a live bluegrass band, and the opportunity to rock your favorite pair of boots at church! Please follow this link to RSVP your plans to attend and whether you will bring a dessert to share. <http://tinyurl.com/CommitmentLuncheon>.

CALLING ALL SAINT LUKE'S BAKERS OF FINE PIES...For years, you have been baking pies to reward the hungry Tartan Trot race winners without concern for recognition or personal reward, and for that we are all eternally grateful. But now is the time to rise up and win your own award for competing in the field in which you best excel; baking the world's best Tartan Trot pies! During the Harvest Festival Commitment Luncheon, we will be holding a pie contest, which will be judged by our very own pastoral staff. So, dust off your cookbooks, dig out those rolling pins, strap on those aprons, and LET THE BAKING BEGIN. Let us know, with your RSVP, if you will be bringing a pie to enter into the contest. <http://tinyurl.com/CommitmentLuncheon>.
