Fourth Sunday after Epiphany

Liturgical Color: Green

Liturgical colors can orient us to the season of the church year and help to engage the sense of sight in worship. Green is used for time periods marked as Ordinary time; Ordinary time is time not marked by a specific festival or season.

SUNDAY SCHEDULE

- 8:30am Chapel Communion Service
- 9:30am Sunday School
- 10:30am Sanctuary Worship Service

MISSION

Responding to God's call and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we invite all to join us in knowing, serving, and sharing Jesus Christ here and around the world.

VISION

To be a beacon of faith, hope, and love—every member an active disciple in Christ's ministry.

WELCOME, GUESTS!

We are delighted you are worshipping with us.

DURING the Welcome, please print the requested information on the Friendship Pad and pass the Friendship Pad down the pew.

AFTER the worship service, please join us outside the Sanctuary where our Pastors or a church officer will be available to answer questions and provide you with a loaf of freshly-baked bread.

THAT ALL MAY WORSHIP

ASSISTIVE A hearing loop is accessible by switching hearing aids to T-coil. Also, large print hymnals and back cushions are available. Please contact an usher for further assistance.

CHILDREN are a precious part of our church family, and we welcome them in worship. Worship notebooks and lacing crosses are available on the back ledges of the sanctuary for preschool and elementary ages. Each week, children are invited to walk up for an age-appropriate message during "Tell Us Our Story." (and younger). After that time, they may remain in worship, go to Faithful Friends (K-2nd) or go to child care (PreK and younger).

SAINT LUKE'S EXTENDS 10:30AM SANCTUARY WORSHIP THROUGH MAY — Experimenting with sanctuary worship at 10:30am, like most other churches in the area now do, has aimed to fit our primary worship service better into the lives of families with school-age children. It appears anecdotally that the goal has been met, as families with children generally indicate preferring the change.

But change is always hard, as is analyzing the benefits and costs of a change in community. Anecdotally the change has helped families with children, but statistically the change has not seemed to increase sanctuary worship attendance. So there are counter-balancing forces at work, too, it would seem, which we need to understand better before making a permanent decision. Therefore the Session on Sunday unanimously agreed to extend the experiment through May, so that we can work on optimizing the change while we learn more about how it is received. If you have thoughts about the schedule change that you have not yet shared, I would welcome the chance to hear them directly, please call or email me at davidlower@slpres.org.

God of salvation,
you shower our lives and our world with love,

Free us from our unwise choices, O God.

Focus our hearts on you, that we may choose the blessing of salvation offered us each day through Jesus Christ...(Silence is kept for personal confession)

People: Hear our prayer. Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness*

Hymn #450*

Be Thou My Vision SLANE

Affirmation of Faith* from Brief Statement of Faith, PCUSA

A Brief Statement of Faith, adopted in 1991 by the PCUSA, was a promised by-product of the 1983 reunion between the Northern Presbyterians (UPCUSA) and the Southern Presbyterians (PCUS), which formed the PCUSA. It seeks, in a few lines, to provide an overview of contemporary Presbyterian faith that is both faithful to the ten essential tenets of Reformed Faith and inclusive of theological insights from scripture.

In life and in death we belong to God.

Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel,
whom alone we worship and serve.

We trust in God, whom Jesus called Abba, Father.

In sovereign love God created the world good and makes everyone equally in God's image male and female,
of every race and people, to live as one community.

Loving us still, God makes us heirs with Christ of the covenant.
Like a mother who will not forsake her nursing child, like a father who runs to welcome the prodigal home, God is faithful still.
With believers in every time and place,
we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Prayers of the People

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;

as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever. Amen.
