Little Saints ~ Big Imaginations

This year as we learn through play in a literacy rich environment, we will highlight the benefits of teaching opposites. Preschoolers will have fun with opposites in imaginative ways as we build descriptive vocabulary, develop thinking skills and boost comprehension.

September	hello/goodbye	Same school, different year! New friends, old friends! Familiar routines, unfamiliar routines!
October	happy/sad	Happy Jack O' Lantern, sad Jack O' Lantern! Round pumpkins, flat pumpkins! Scary ghosts, friendly witches!
November	float/sink	Native to America, new to America! Short feast, long feast! Soft green leaves, crunchy brown leaves! "There is more happiness in giving than receiving." Acts 20:35
December	naughty/nice	Santa's naughty list? NO! Santa's nice list! Down the chimney, up the chimney! Wrapped presents, opened presents!
January	awake/asleep	Awake in the morning, asleep at night! Sleeping for Winter, waking for Spring! Cold and snowy, warm and sunny!
February	sweet/sour	Sweet foods, sour foods! Chocolate treats, vanilla treats! Walk the Tartan Trot, run the Tartan Trot!
March	quiet/loud	Quiet inside voices, loud outside voices! In like a lion, out like a lamb! Leprechauns - real or imaginary!
April	crawl/fly	Butterfly Unit - from crawling caterpillars to flying butterflies! Small flower buds, large flower blooms!
May	little/big end/begin	Little Saints -> Big Saints! Bittersweet! School is ending, vacation is beginning!

Bible Verse of the Year

Pray more; worry less. Philippians 4:6, 7

"Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank Him for what He has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand."
