In Preparation for Worship

World Communion Sunday invites us to lean into the beautiful reality of the communal church at worship that is the global church. Every Lord's Day in every time zone, there are devoted Christians worshipping our Triune God. Whether under the shade of a tree, in a rice paddy, by a creek bed, in a grand cathedral, or in storefronts, Christ-followers all over the planet are praying and singing in indigenous ways using their languages. What a glorious picture of worship in the kingdom of God come near, when we grasp the fullness of the body of Christ, and sing and pray with brothers and sisters around the world. - Cynthia Wilson, Diana Sanchez-Bushong & Derek Weber

Call to Worship

Leader: O Lord, open our lips, and our mouths will proclaim your praise.

People: It is good to praise the Lord and make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning, and your faithfulness at night.

Leader: Come, let us sing for joy to God; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.

People: Let us come before the Lord with thanksgiving and praise God with music and song.

Affirmation of Faith*

from the Belhar Confession

We believe in one holy, universal Christian church, the unity of the communion of saints of the entire human family.
And we believe that this unity of the people of God must be manifest and active,
in that we love one another;
that we give ourselves willingly and joyfully to one another,
that we share one baptism together,
that we eat of one bread and drink of one cup together, that we confess one name, one Lord, for one cause, with one hope, which is the height and the breadth and the depth and the love of Christ, forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving and The Lord's Prayer

Shannon Dill

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
