

REV. JENELLE HOLMES grew up in Washington State. Following Whitworth University, she and her husband, Rev. Dr. Christopher Holmes, lived in Colorado where she taught middle school English. Jenelle and Chris spent three years in Princeton, NJ prior to moving to Atlanta 11 years ago so Chris could pursue his PhD in New Testament at Emory University. Jenelle found her seminary home at Candler Theological Seminary, graduating in 2015. She then went straight to Trinity Presbyterian Church in Atlanta where she formed and directed a Young Adult Ministry. Jenelle loves imagining and starting new things so she took the opportunity to work with New Church Development Commission in starting Ormewood Church, one of the Presbytery of Greater Atlanta's 25 new worshipping communities. Currently in year five of this position, Jenelle is guiding that community-focused congregation in a journey to discover how the Spirit is guiding their presence of love for the neighborhood. Jenelle and Chris have two children, son Micah and daughter Darcy.

PRESBYTERIAN HOMES OF GEORGIA CARING HANDS FUND

The offering tonight benefits the Presbyterian Homes of Georgia Caring Hands Fund. Presbyterian Homes is a ministry devoted to God's seniors across the state of Georgia in six locations. The senior population, especially those in senior living facilities, has been hit especially hard by the global coronavirus pandemic. For 72 years, the Presbyterian Homes has offered benevolent care and Caring Hands contributions directly support the care of residents who have outlived their financial resources. The Caring Hands Fund allows Presbyterian Homes of Georgia to keep its commitment that no resident is ever asked to leave the compassionate and superior quality care they receive just because their money has run out. You can learn more about Presbyterian Homes of Georgia on their website, www.PHGAinc.org.
